Code of Behaviour, Etiquette and Discipline Procedures Policy.

Introduction

In reviewing our existing Code of Behaviour for Scoil Aodh Rua agus Nuala consideration has been given to the particular needs and circumstances of our school. We must ensure in so far as possible that the individuality of each child is accommodated while acknowledging the absolute right of each child to education in a relatively disruption free environment. It has been written in accordance with the guidelines Developing a Code of Behaviour Guidelines for Schools published by the National Welfare Education Board 2008. It also conforms with legislation as required by Section 23 of the Education Welfare Act 2000. This policy needs to be read in conjunction with:

Supervision Policy Anti-bullying policy, SPHE, Acceptable Use Policy (ICT), Harassment and Adult Anti-Bullying Policy, Substance Abuse Policy, Child Protection Policy, Healthy Eating Policy, Homework Policy, School Safety Statement, Enrolment policy, Parents Complaints Procedures.

Children need limits set for them in order to feel secure and help develop the skills for co-operation. Therefore any rules will be age appropriate with clear agreed consequences.

Aims.

- To create a positive learning environment that encourages and reinforces good behaviour.
- To promote self-esteem and positive relationships.
- To encourage consistency of response to both positive and negative behaviour.
- To foster a sense of responsibility and self-discipline in pupils and to support good behaviour patterns based on consideration and respect for the right of others.
- To facilitate the education and development of every child.

- To foster caring attitudes to one another and to the environment.
- To enable teachers to teach without disruption.
- To ensure that the school's expectations and strategies are widely known and understood through the parent information booklet(issued to parents on the pupils enrolment) availability of policies and an ethos of open communication.
- To encourage the involvement of both home and school in the implementation of this policy.

Promoting Positive Behaviour.

Part of our schools vision is to “give each child a secure, caring, stimulating environment which will challenge each one to his/her full potential and build a strong foundation from which children can progress to second level”. We recognise that there are many different forms of intelligence and abilities and that similarly children use a variety of strategies to solve problems. Our reward system caters for pupils of all abilities and talents. All children deserve encouragement to attain their “own” best. Discussion among staff highlighted perceived differences between strategies used at junior level and senior level. Children in junior classes enjoy stamps, stickers and treats etc where as pupils in Senior classes prefer homework passes and extra playtime. There is a general expectation of good behaviour throughout the school from the time the doors are opened to admit pupils. Classes line up in an orderly manner and wait in queues until the door is open. The childrens’ respect for teachers, Special Needs Assistants, their peers and school property is demonstrated in their use of respectful language and good manners.

All teachers use praise and acknowledgment and all staff is included in lauding individual children’s achievements.

Praise is given for the maintenance of good standards as well as for particular noteworthy personal achievements.

Pride in the school and a sense of child’s place in it is fostered through the use of positive strategies such as:

- Ensuring that pupils are treated fairly, equally, firmly and consistently.
- A quiet word or gesture to show approval. Acknowledge good behaviour immediately (catching them when they are good).
- Matching work with pupil’s ability. Making sure children experience success.
- A comment in a pupil’s copy book/diary.
- A mention to a parent written or verbal.
- A visit to another teacher’s classroom or principal’s office for commendation.

- Star/reward charts, (wall charts, computer charts) stickers, homework passes, lucky dips.
- A word of praise in front of a group/class or whole school assembly.
- Delegating some responsibility or privilege for example the Class Captain or Group Leader.
- Drawing up a contract to enable the behaviour of a pupil to improve.
- Recording improvement in behaviour. Informing parents of this.
- Communication with Parents/guardians is important in maintaining a positive approach to dealing with children's behaviour. Parents and teachers should be consistent in their approach and should develop a joint strategy to dealing with specific behaviours. Co-operation and openness is vital. Parents/guardians should be able to talk in confidence about any problems in a child's life past/present that may be contributing to certain behaviours.
- Open discussion on matters of concern so as to resolve issues.
- The SPHE programme supports our Code of Behaviour. It develops the pupil's communication skills, conflict resolution skills, fosters self-esteem and self-worth and accommodates differences, inclusion and acceptance.
- Implementation of circle time as a teaching strategy.
- Display photos of achievement, sports events, work displays, project work and liturgical celebrations.
- Staff will be afforded the opportunity to attend in-service courses in the area of behaviour management and to liaise with SESS, NEPS and other professionals.
- The effectiveness of the code will be reviewed regularly at staff meetings and Board of Management meetings.
- The policy will be presented to all new staff members and will be included in the enrolment pack for all pupils enrolling in our school.
- Parents/Guardians on the enrolment of their child are asked to sign that they have read and accept the schools Code of Behaviour.

Sanctions

The general standard of behaviour in our school is very good. This reflects great credit on parents, pupils and staff alike.

However from time to time some pupils misbehave and consequently sanctions need to be applied.

The use of a sanction or consequences should be characterised by certain features such as:

- It must be clear why the sanction is being applied.
- The consequences must relate as closely as possible to the behaviour.
- It must be made clear what changes in behaviour are required to avoid further sanctions.
- Group punishment should be avoided as it breeds resentments.
- There should be a clear distinction between minor and major offences.
- It should be the behaviour rather than the pupils that is the focus.

The purpose of a sanction is to bring about a change in behaviour by:

- Helping the pupils to learn that their behaviour is unacceptable.
- Helping pupils to recognise the effect of their behaviour and actions on others.
- Helping pupils (in ways appropriate to their age and development) to understand that they have choices about their own behaviour and that all choices have consequences.
- Helping pupils to learn to take responsibility for their behaviour.
- Prevent the behaviour occurring again and if necessary, to help pupils devise strategies for this.
- To prevent serious disruption of teaching and learning.
- To keep the pupil or other pupils/staff safe.

A sanction may also:

- Reinforce the boundaries set out in the Code of Behaviour.
- Signal to other pupils and to staff that their wellbeing is being protected.
- Sanctions will always be applied according to the gravity of the misbehaviour, with due regard for the age and emotional development of the child.

The degree of misdemeanours ie. minor, serious or gross will be judged by the class teacher, teacher on yard duty or Principal based on a common sense approach with regard to the gravity, frequency of such misdemeanours.

Following an audit of the pupil's misbehaviour the teachers have categorised the behaviour as follows:

Procedures for Suspension and Expulsion.

Suspension

In the case of a single incident of gross misbehaviour or repeated incidents of serious behaviour the Board of Management has the authority to suspend a pupil. The Board of Management of Scoil Aodh Rua agus Nuala has delegated the authority to the School Principal to suspend a child for three days. If a Board of Management Meeting is required to further consider the issue and/or to apply further sanctions this period may be extended to a maximum of 5 days.

Fair procedures based on the principles of natural justice will prevail when a suspension is being considered.

Fair procedures have two essential parts as per pages 67 and 68 Developing a Code of Behaviour Guidelines for schools.

- The right to be heard.
- The right to impartiality.

Procedures in respect of Suspension as per NEWB Guidelines for Developing a Code of Behaviour 2008.

The decision to suspend a pupil requires serious grounds for example:

- The pupil's behaviour is infringing on the education of other pupils.
- The pupil's continued presence in the school constitutes a threat to other pupils, staff and school community.
- The pupil's risk to damaging property.
- A single incident of gross misbehaviour may be grounds for suspension.

The following steps will be taken in the event of the decision by the Board to suspend:

- The Board of Management will convene a meeting as soon as possible.
- Investigation of the facts to confirm misbehaviour will be conducted.
- Parents/Guardians will be informed by phone, in writing or verbally about the incident.
- Principal/ Chairperson notifies Parents/Guardians in writing of the decision to suspend.
- The letter should state the dates for which the suspension applies.
- The reason for the suspension.
- Arrangements in place, if any at this point for pupils return to school.

Records and Reports

Formal written records will be kept of:

- The investigation.
- The decision-making process.
- The decision and the rationale for the decision
- The duration of the suspension and any conditions attached to the suspension.

The Principal will report suspensions in accordance with the NEWB reporting guidelines (Education (Welfare) Act, 2000, section 21 (4) (a)).

Parents/Guardians have the right to appeal a Board of Management decision to suspend to the Secretary General of the Department of Education and skills where the total number of days for which the student has been suspended in the current school year reaches twenty days.

In exceptional circumstances, the Principal may consider an immediate suspension to be necessary where the continued presence of the pupil in the school at the time would represent a serious threat to the safety of pupils or staff of the school, or any other person. In this instance the Parents/Guardians will be required to collect the child before the full investigation is complete, but otherwise the procedures above apply.

Removal of Suspension

Following a period of suspension, the parents/guardians must give a satisfactory undertaking that the pupil will behave in accordance with the school Code of Behaviour on his/her return to school. The principal must be satisfied that the reinstatement of the pupil will not constitute a risk to the pupil's own safety or to that of the other pupils or staff.

Fair procedures based on the principles of natural justice will prevail when a permanent exclusion is being considered.

Fair procedures have two essential parts as per pages 67 and 68 Developing a Code of Behaviour Guidelines for schools.

- The right to be heard.
- The right to impartiality.

Expulsion/Permanent Exclusion

- The Board of Management of a recognised school has the authority to permanently exclude a student.
- When all other avenues have been exhausted with regard to pupil management the Board may have to permanently exclude a pupil from the school.
- In the event of a permanent exclusion the Board of Management adopts fully the procedures outlined in Chapter 12 (pages 80/87) of "Developing a Code of Behaviour, NEWB Guidelines.
- A detailed investigation directed by the Board of Management to be carried out by the Principal .
- Inform the parents in writing of alleged misbehaviour, how it will be investigated and that it could result in expulsion.
- A recommendation to the Board of Management by the Principal (pge 84 NEWB Guidelines).
- Consideration by the Board of Management of the Principal's recommendation/professional view that a permanent exclusion maybe warranted.
- The holding of a Hearing.
- Give the Parent(s) and pupil the opportunity to respond before a decision is made by inviting them to this hearing.
- Board of Management deliberations and actions following the hearing (pge 85 NEWB Guidelines).
- If the Board of Management is of the opinion that the student should be expelled, the Board must notify the Educational Welfare Officer (EWO) in writing, of its opinion and the reasons for this opinion. The intention to expel a student does not take effect until 20 days have elapsed after NEWB have received written notification. The NEWB should be notified using a Notice of Intention to Expel form which is available on ww.schoolreturn.ie or from their helpline (1890 36 3666). This form should be completed and sent to School Return Section, National Educational Welfare Board, 16-22 Green St. Dublin 7.
